Optional European Coverage Available for Snap-on's Software Bundle 11.2

LINCOLNSHIRE, IL, Sept. 6, 2011 – European vehicles present a different set of unknowns, but with the optional European kit available for Snap-on's Software Bundle 11.2, automotive technicians will gain the confidence to take on jobs from body control and suspension issues, to driveability and wheel assignment and service.

With optional European coverage, technicians will be able to service popular vehicles including Audi, BMW, Land Rover, Mercedes-Benz, Mini, Volkswagen and Volvo.

European coverage highlights include, but are not limited to:

- Driveability:
 - BMW Immobilizer for Newer Vehicles
 - Mercedes-Benz Diesel, Injector Programming

- Wheel Alignment & Service:
 - BMW Wheel Alignment Menu
 - Mercedes-Benz TPMS
 - Volkswagen TPMS
 - Volkswagen Wheel Alignment Menu
 - Land Rover Steering Angle Sensor Calibration

- Body Control and Suspension:
 - BMW Park Distance Control System
 - Mercedes-Benz Park Control Module
 - Volkswagen Park Assist
 - Land Rover Service Interval Reset

"We have recently started to work on more and more European cars, especially Volkswagens, and being able to do throttle body relearns fast and accurately is very important," said Duane Bischoff, a customer from Brookville, Ind.

Software Bundle 11.2 includes new features and coverage, plus all of the features and coverage from the previous upgrades. Get over 126,000 new and enhanced codes, tests, tips and data, plus access to over 17,300 systems for model years 1993 to 2010, including new 2010 domestic and Asian coverage for Ford, Chrysler, Acura, Honda, Hyundai, Kia, Mitsubishi and Mazda. In addition, Software Bundle 11.2 offers over 73,000 new and enhanced component test meter (CTM) tips – the largest addition to any software bundle ever!

Optional European coverage is not included in the Software Bundle 11.2 purchase, but is available for an additional cost. To learn more about Software Bundle 11.2, visit <http://diagnostics.snapon.com> or talk to a Snap-on representative.
