Snap-on Driver Kurt Busch Captures NASCAR Win at Texas Motor Speedway

Three other Snap-on Drivers Finish in Top 10

KENOSHA, Wis. – November 9, 2009 – Snap-on driver Kurt Busch battled his younger brother Kyle wire-to-wire before Kurt pulled away for a NASCAR Sprint Cup victory on Nov. 8 at the Texas Motor Speedway. It was the second Sprint Cup win of the year for Kurt Busch and his Penske Racing team.

“What a great win for Kurt Busch and the Penske Racing team,” said Alicia Smales, vice president of marketing for Snap-on Tools. “Because of our strong relationship with Penske Racing through the years, it is always extra special when one of our Snap-on sponsored Penske drivers wins. Kurt ran a tremendous race and everyone at Snap-on is thrilled with his victory.”

Busch started the race from the third position and never strayed from the top five in the standings during the entire race. Kurt and his brother went on to lead all but 13 of the laps during the race. Three other Snap-on drivers finished in the top 10 at Texas: Kevin Harvick was fifth, Clint Bowyer seventh and Jeff Burton finished ninth.

The NASCAR Sprint Cup series has only two races remaining, Nov. 15 in Phoenix and the season-ending race in Homestead, Fla. on Nov. 22. Snap-on’s NHRA drivers will complete their season this weekend, Nov. 12-15, at the NHRA Finals in Pomona, Cal.
