Snap-on Featured in NASCAR Illustrated

Track-Side Techs Rely on Snap-on Tools, Boxes

KENOSHA, Wis. – November 11, 2009 – In the November issue of NASCAR Illustrated, Snap-on tools, tool storage units and the efficiency they bring to the racetrack are all topics of discussion with Heath Silver, car chief for Juan Pablo Montoya. Montoya, who is turning in his finest season yet in NASCAR, drives the #42 Target Chevrolet Impala for Earnhardt Ganassi Racing in the Sprint Cup Series and is sixth in the season-points standings with five races remaining.

“When it comes to NASCAR, saving time is a top priority,” said Alicia Smales, vice president of marketing for Snap-on Tools. “With all the unique features that our products offer, Snap-on increases productivity and efficiency both on and off the racetrack. We’re so glad that Snap-on has been part of the winning formula for Juan Pablo Montoya’s team this season and look forward to reading all about it in the latest issue of NASCAR Illustrated.”

The four-page feature article in NASCAR Illustrated features Snap-on tools and tool boxes and offers a behind the scenes look at what it’s like to work on the speedway. Silver gives an up-close look at what is in his Snap-on tool box and how he uses his Snap-on tools to not only get Montoya’s car ready for a race, but how he uses them to make split-second adjustments during a race. NASCAR Illustrated is available through subscription or at newsstands.
