Snap-on Sponsored Will Power Wins Second-Straight IRL Race

KENOSHA, Wis. – September 7, 2011 – The streets of Baltimore were kind to Will Power over the weekend as he captured the IRL Baltimore Grand Prix on Sunday, Sept. 5. With the victory, the Team Penske driver moved to within five points of the season points lead with only three races remaining.

“Will Power and the Penske Racing team ran another great race in Baltimore,” said Rick Secor, director of marketing communications for Snap-on Tools. “With that victory, Will moved even closer to the season points lead and the IRL season championship. We congratulate Will and the entire Penske Racing team and wish them good luck as they head to Japan.”

Power, who started from the pole in the inaugural Baltimore Grand Prix, led the most laps and tied an IRL record with his sixth win of the season. Power and his Penske Racing teammates, Helio Castroneves and Ryan Briscoe, will now go to Japan to race on the Twin Ring Motegi road course on Sept. 17.

Cruz Pedregon and the Snap-on Funny Car will start the 2011 “Countdown to the Championship” Sept. 15-18 at zMAX Dragway in Charlotte. Pedregon, who is the defending champion in this race, is fourth in the 2011 point standings heading into the “Countdown”.

Snap-on’s NASCAR drivers are off to Richmond this weekend with the Nationwide race scheduled for Sept. 9 and the Sprint Cup race set for Sept. 10. Both races will be under the lights at the Richmond International Raceway.
