Get the Essential Tools to Finish the Job Efficiently with Snap-on's Body Shop Catalog

For a Limited Time Get Special Pricing on Select Tools and Equipment

KENOSHA, Wis. – October 12, 2011 – If you do body shop work, you need Snap-on tools. It is as simple as that. And with Snap-on's new Body Shop Catalog, you can get the essential body shop tools you need to finish jobs efficiently. For a limited time, Snap-on is offering its customers the opportunity to get these body shop tools at a special price.

"If you have been putting off that major purchase of a certain body shop tool or piece of equipment, now is the opportune time to get it because we have a tremendous selection of body shop tools and equipment available at great prices," said Gerry Beronja, director of customer marketing for Snap-on. "We have a complete line of sanders, grinders and welders, plus a great assortment of hand tools, power tools and shop and tech tools."

The 12-page body shop catalog features a selection of specially priced tools and equipment including hand tools such as quick release ratchets, ratchet and socket sets, screwdriver sets, hammers, file sets and prying tools. In addition, a wide variety of power tools are also available including orbital sanders, air drills, grinders, air ratchets and air saws.

A full-line of welders is available as well as welding helmets and gloves. Additional shop equipment is offered such as battery chargers and testers, jump packs, a sandblasting gun and spray guns, plus diagnostic tools and multimeters. A selection of painting stands is also available.

Customers can get a copy of the new Snap-on Body Shop Catalog and find out about the special pricing options by contacting their participating Snap-on franchisee or representative, visiting www.snapon.com or by calling toll free 877-SNAPON-4 (877-762-7664).
