New Snap-on Ken Onion Designed Wrinkle Knife from CRKT a Cut Above the Rest

Versatile Blade Shape Perfect for Cutting, Skinning and Scraping

KENOSHA, Wis. – June 19, 2013 – When the world’s leading tool company, Snap-on, gets together with one of the world’s most famous knife designers, Ken Onion, and one of the most innovative custom knife makers, CRKT®, you know you are going to end up with something special. These three renowned brands have worked together to create the Snap-on® Ken Onion® Large Wrinkle Knife \(SEK74MAKK\), available only through Snap-on.

“We are thrilled to offer our customers this exclusive Ken Onion designed Wrinkle Knife from CRKT,” said Jason Frey, category manager for Snap-on. “Ken Onion has brought inventive knife designs to the market for over 20 years and he has an inspired, loyal following. CRKT is known for providing distinctive, quality products to its customers. If you are a fan of edged tools, you will love the new Snap-on Ken Onion Wrinkle Knife.”

Available in four colors (red, green, orange, black), the Snap-on Ken Onion Large Wrinkle Knife features the Ikoma Korth Ball Bearing System (IKBS™), giving the knife one of the strongest, smoothest and fastest pivot systems available. Featuring an ambidextrous flipper, the IKBS system ensures smooth, fast opening without springs.

The Snap-on Ken Onion Wrinkle Knife is made from high carbon steel that provides superior cutting performance and incredible edge retention and also has a modified hollow ground drop point blade which reduces resistance when cutting. The cold forged anodized aluminum handle is durable, lightweight and built to withstand the abuse of a shop environment. The liner lock design with recessed liners and barrel spacers create a knife that is safe, strong and thin but still easy to close and clean.
