Logano Takes Win in Rain-delayed Texas Race for Snap-on-sponsored Team Penske

KENOSHA, Wis – April 8, 2014 – Joey Logano made a final lap charge to take his first win of the season and fourth of his career in the rain-delayed Duck Commander 500 at the Texas Motor Speedway late yesterday. He and Snap-on sponsored Team Penske teammate Brad Keselowski led 192 of 336 laps with Keselowski finishing 15th.

“Joey had a fast car, fresh tires and the determination of a driver ready for a win to claim this victory in Texas,” says Yvette Morrison, vice president of marketing, Snap-on Tools. “Team Penske has a lot to be proud of with two drivers ready for the Chase early in the season, and Snap-on is pleased to sponsor and work with this fine team.”

Not only making victory rings on the Texas track, but wearing one after the race, Logano tweeted, “I got a trophy. I got a hat. I got to shoot guns. I got a ring. I got a duck call. I’d say that’s a pretty good day. Now I want another one.” Later he posted, “Proud of all my Team Penske guys and everyone at the shop. I can’t wait to celebrate with all of them tomorrow” and “Wow, what a day. So proud of my team...Happy to be locked into the Chase...”
