Snap-on Tool of the Month: Round Head Ratchets

KENOSHA, Wis. – July 28, 2011 – It doesn't take a genius to figure out that more teeth plus a slimmer head equals infinite productivity and by using Snap-on's round head ratchets, you will show your customers that you are the smartest person around because you will get their service jobs done faster and more efficiently.

"Our Snap-on round head ratchets are designed and manufactured to do the tough jobs in tight places, quickly and efficiently," said Mark Knapp, product manager for Snap-on. "With more teeth and a slimmer head, our customers will be able to use these ratchets on a variety of jobs, leading to an increase in productivity as well as a lot of happy customers."

The complete Snap-on round head ratchet line is made up of the following popular tools:

3/8-Inch Drive 100-Tooth Round Head Ratchet (FN100)

- Compact round head provides access to get into tight quarters
- 100-teeth provides lower swing arc to provide shorter movement between tooth engagement

3/8-Inch Drive 72-Tooth Swivel Round Head Ratchet (FHCNF72)

- 3/8-inch drive in 1/4-inch body
- 100-teeth provides lower swing arc to provide shorter movement between tooth engagement
- Round head swivel head ratchet with classic soft grip handle that delivers comfort with style and resists most shop chemicals
- Swivel head offers a variety of ratcheting positions including "straight-on" for use as a ratcheting nut driver

1/4-Inch Drive 72-Tooth Round Swivel Head Ratchet (THNF72)

- 72-tooth gear for five degrees of swing arc
- Swivel action to get into tight access locations
