Snap-on NASCAR Nationwide Driver Clint Bowyer Wins at Dover

RCR Driver Wins Second Race of Season

KENOSHA, Wis. – September 28, 2009 – Snap-on sponsored NASCAR Nationwide driver Clint Bowyer won his second race of the year with a victory at the Dover 200 on September 26 in Dover, Del.

“We want to congratulate Clint and the entire Richard Childress Racing (RCR) team on a tremendous win at Dover,” said Alicia Smales, vice president of marketing for Snap-on Tools. “We have had a great relationship with RCR over the years and Clint is such a terrific ambassador for Snap-on that we are especially thrilled for them with this victory. We hope this is a springboard to a strong finish this season.”

Besides being Bowyer’s second win of the year, it was also his eighth career Nationwide win. The Nationwide drivers will be racing again on Saturday, October 3 in the Nationwide 300 at the Kansas Speedway.
