Cruz Pedregon and Snap-on Funny Car to Race at “Night Under Fire”

KENOSHA, Wis. – July 16, 2010 – Cruz Pedregon and the Snap-on Funny Car will participate in the annual “Night Under Fire” match race, the largest independent drag race in the world. This year’s race will be held on July 31 in Norwalk, Ohio at the Summit Motorsports Park.

“I’m looking forward to heading out to Norwalk on July 31 for a great night of racing,” said Pedregon. “The owners of the track, the Bader family, really love the show aspect of the race. Every year, they host this invitation-only night race, ‘Night Under Fire,’ where all the track workers get dressed up in red tuxedos, light fireworks and the whole thing is just spectacular. They really are the showmen of the NHRA with a love for the fans, the families they bring and just the entertainment factor.”

Cruz and his brother Tony will be two of eight featured NHRA Funny Car drivers competing in a match race format at the “Night Under Fire”. The gates open at 8:00 a.m. on July 31 at the Summit Motorsports Park with the main event starting at 5:45 p.m.
