Snap-on Sponsored Brad Keselowski Wins Nationwide Season Finale in Miami

350th Career Victory for Penske Racing

KENOSHA, Wis. – November 21, 2011 – Snap-on sponsored Brad Keselowski finished the 2011 NASCAR Nationwide season with his fifth win of the year as he captured the Ford 300 on Nov. 19 at the Homestead-Miami Speedway.

“We want to congratulate Brad on finishing the Nationwide season in a very impressive fashion,” said Kai Kazarian, manager of sales communications for Snap-on Tools. “Brad started from the pole, had some car issues, but still managed to get his fifth win of the year. We also want to congratulate Roger Penske and the entire Penske Racing team on their 350th career victory. It has been a privilege for Snap-on to be associated with one of the greatest names in racing for so many of those victories.”

Keselowski won from the pole at Homestead as he picked up his 17th career Nationwide win. In the last 17 races of the 2011 season, Keselowski, the defending Nationwide champion, won five times and finished second twice. With his victory on Saturday, he helped the Penske race team finish fifth in the Nationwide owner point standings.
