Snap-on Sponsored Kurt Busch Wins NASCAR Sprint Cup Race at Dover

Three Snap-on Drivers, Top Four in Points, Three Different Series

KENOSHA, Wis. – October 3, 2011 – With his second Sprint Cup win of the season on Sunday at the Dover International Raceway, Snap-on sponsored Penske Racing driver Kurt Busch moved into fourth in the NASCAR Sprint Cup point standings with seven races remaining.

“What a great win for Kurt Busch and the entire Penske Racing team,” said Kai Kazarian, manager of sales communications for Snap-on Tools. “Kurt has positioned himself in a good spot for a run at the Sprint Cup championship.”

The victory at Dover moved Busch to only nine points out of first place in the Sprint Cup standings. Busch and his Penske Racing teammates will be in Kansas this weekend when they take part in the Hollywood Casino 400 at the Kansas Speedway on Oct. 9. The Nationwide drivers were also in Dover last weekend and Penske Racing’s Brad Keselowski finished second in the Nationwide Race on Oct. 1. The Snap-on sponsored Nationwide drivers will also race at the Kansas Speedway on Oct. 8 in the Kansas Lottery 300.

“Two of our other drivers, Cruz Pedregon in the NHRA and Will Power in the Indy Car Series, are also in strong positions to win season titles as well. We wish all of the Snap-on sponsored drivers good luck as they head to the home stretch of the season,” said Kazarian.

Pedregon and the Snap-on Funny Car remain in third place in the NHRA Funny Car point standings heading into their next race, the NHRA Arizona Nationals held Oct. 14-16 at the Firebird International Raceway in Phoenix.

The Indy Car Series season comes to an end with the Indy Car World Championships on Oct. 16 in Las Vegas. Snap-on sponsored Penske Racing driver Will Power enters the season finale 18 points out of first in his quest for his first-ever season championship.
