Snap-on Driver Brad Keselowski Wins Second “Chase” Race

Team Penske Driver Leads with Seven Races to Go

KENOSHA, Wis. – October 1, 2012 – Snap-on sponsored driver Brad Keselowski has never won at the Dover International Speedway (Del.), but that all changed on Sunday when Keselowski captured the checkered flag at the NASCAR AAA 400 Sprint Cup Race. With the victory, Keselowski moved back into first place in the “Chase” with seven races remaining in the NASCAR season.

“It was another exciting race for Brad and the Penske Racing team,” said Yvette Morrison, vice president of marketing, Snap-on Tools Group. “Brad has picked the opportune time in the season to turn up the heat. He now has won two of the three ‘Chase’ races and has put himself and the Penske team in a perfect position to win the season championship.”

It was Keselowski’s fifth NASCAR Sprint Cup victory this season but more importantly, his second win since the “Chase” started. His five wins are tied with Denny Hamlin for the most victories in 2012. The Penske Sprint Cup drivers will be back on the track this weekend in Talladega for the Good Sam Roadside Assistance 500 on Oct. 7 at the Talladega Superspeedway. The Nationwide Penske drivers are off until Oct. 12 when they race in Charlotte.

Cruz Pedregon and the Snap-on Funny Car team held onto fourth place in the season points standings in St. Louis and will look to make another move up the standings this week in the NHRA Nationals in Reading, Pa.
