Snap-on 18-Volt Cordless Grease Gun Meets the Demands of Heavy Duty Users

KENOSHA, Wis. – February 16, 2008 – Designed and manufactured to withstand the rigors of its heavy duty users, Snap-on's 18-volt cordless grease gun (CGG4850) is a time-saving tool that is easy to use and will help service technicians tackle challenging every day jobs, including those in extreme conditions.

"Our customers demand that the tools they use be powerful, tough, efficient and productive," said Rodger Isetts, product manager for Snap-on. "Snap-on's 18-volt cordless grease gun meets all of these demands. Besides being easy to use, it will work under the most high pressure, cold weather, extreme conditions while still providing the efficiency and productivity that Snap-on tools always deliver. With Snap-on's 18-volt cordless grease gun, there will be less down time, greater performance and longer tool life, making heavy-duty jobs easier."

The Snap-on 18-volt Cordless Grease Gun features:

- Flexible in cold weather 7500 PSI hose operates at minus five degrees.
- High impact nylon housing has durable high-impact strength giving it longer tool life.
- Bulk or cartridge compatible refill is more versatile, eliminating down time.
- Over molded comfort cushion trigger has a soft touch with precise control means less finger stress and strain.
- All-steel slide crank mechanism has less parts and greater durability leading to less down time.
- All-steel gear box is more durable than competitors' plastic gear tools which will result in longer tool life.
- First stage planetary gearing and second stage steel spur gearing means less wear and stripping of gears provides for greater performance and longer tool life.
- 18-volt 2.4 AHr slide on battery eliminates down time - it also runs on Snap-on's CTB4145 14.4 volt 2.4Ah battery.
- Pump housing pressure tested to 20,000 PSI works under extreme conditions and handles heavy duty applications.

The Snap-on 18-volt cordless grease gun (CGG4850) set also includes two 18-volt batteries, a charger and a plastic storage case. In addition, the Snap-on mobile charger (CTC428) and light (CTLED4918) are great accessories for use with the 18-volt Cordless Grease Gun.
